Straight—Forward: New Finnish Design Exhibition

We spent an inspiring morning at an exhibition of new Finnish design being held in NY as part of the Meatpacking District Design '10 events. Located in a great space in Chelsea Market, the exhibition includes new work from designers both famously familiar and fresh to the scene. Definitely worth a look, it is up through the 17th, and if you want to do a little shopping as well as scouting, there is a pop-up shop of Finnish design in the same space.
